The notation $C^3$ does mean $C$ multiplied by itself three times (in the matrix world as well as in the world of numbers). That is to say, $C^3 = C \times C \times C$.

Note, such an expression will only be defined if the matrix being multiplied by itself is square in size.